REQUEST FOR COVERAGE

JAMAICA MILITARY AVIATION SCHOOL WINGS PRESENTATION CEREMONY

WHAT: The Jamaica Military Aviation School (JMAS) will be graduating its second batch of students.

WHEN: Friday 18 June 2010 at 9:00 a.m.

WHERE: JDF Air Wing Manley Base Hangar (Alpha 1),
Norman Manley International Airport, Kingston 1

WHO: Chief of Defence Staff Major General Stewart Saunders will be the Key Note Speaker.

Other special guests include members of Government, Diplomatic Officials and military heads from the region.

Jamaica achieved another milestone when the first set of military student pilots graduated from JMAS on 17 January 2009. The school, the result of collaboration between Jamaica and Canada, was officially opened on 07 December 2006. JMAS is established to serve military forces in the Caribbean and has had students and instructors from Caribbean forces from the onset.
